ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO OCTAVO
VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. 12.

An Act to Amend "The Co-operative Communities Land Settlement Act of 1893."

[ASSENTED TO 20TH NOVEMBER, 1894.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Co-operative Communities Land Settlement Act of 1893" in certain particulars: Preamble.
Be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Queensland in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act shall be read and construed with and as an amendment of "The Co-operative Communities Land Settlement Act of 1893," hereinafter called the Principal Act. Short title and construction.

This Act may be cited as "The Co-operative Communities Land Settlement Act of 1893 Amendment Act of 1894."

2. So much of the third section of the Principal Act as is contained in the words "The senior member for the time being of a group as set forth in the eighth section of this Act" is hereby repealed, and the following words are substituted therefor:—"The member whose election as secretary has been from time to time certified to the Minister in the manner set forth in the eighth section of the Principal Act as amended by this Act." Repeal of part of section 3 of 57 Vic. No. 16.

Co-operative Communities Land Settlement Act Amendment Act.

Repeal of part of section 8 of 57 Vic.
No. 16.

3. So much of the eighth section of the Principal Act as is contained in the words "The member whose name from time to time appears first upon the copy of the rules deposited with the Minister shall be entitled the secretary of the group, and to him all communications upon the affairs of the group shall be addressed by the Minister, and notice to him shall be notice to each and every member: Provided that after the original list of members is exhausted the member for the time being first in order of admission to membership shall be the secretary of the group" is hereby repealed, and the following enactment is substituted therefor:—

Election of secretary.

The members of the group may from time to time elect one of their number to be the secretary of the group, and may in like manner remove such member from the office of secretary. Every such election and removal shall be certified to the Minister by a writing signed by a majority of the members for the time being, and upon such writing being received by the Minister, the person named therein as having been elected shall be and be recognised as the secretary of the group, and to him all communications upon the affairs of the group shall be addressed by the Minister, and notice to him shall be notice to each and every member: Provided that until such writing is so received the person hitherto secretary shall continue to be in office.

Further advances to groups in manner
set forth in section
33 of 57 Vic. No. 16.

4. The Governor in Council may, out of any moneys appropriated by Parliament for that purpose, make further advances, in the manner prescribed by the thirty-third section of the Principal Act, to any of the groups set forth in the Schedule of this Act to such respective amounts and for such purposes as he may see fit, but the whole amount of such advances shall not exceed the sum of three thousand pounds.

Such advances shall be subject to all the provisions of the Principal Act in respect of advances made under the authority of the said thirty-third section thereof.
