QUEENSLAND, } Proclamation by the Most
to wit. } Honorable GEORGE AUGUSTUS
CONSTANTINE, Marquis of Normanby,
Earl of Mulgrave, Viscount Normanby, and Baron Mulgrave of Mulgrave, all in the County of York, in the Peerage of the United Kingdom; and Baron Mulgrave of New Ross, in the County of Wexford,
(L.S.) in the Peerage of Ireland; a Member
NORMANBY, of Her Majesty's Most Honorable
Governor. Privy Council, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies, and Governor of the Islands within sixty miles of the coast of the Colony of Queensland.

WHEREAS Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen was pleased by Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, dated the 30th day of May, 1872, to constitute and appoint the Governor and Commander-in-Chief for the time being of the Colony of Queensland, to be Governor of all the Islands lying and being within sixty miles of the coast of the said Colony. And whereas Her said Majesty did, by the said Letters Patent, further declare Her pleasure to be that if at any time thereafter the Legislative Council and Assembly of the said Colony of Queensland should, by resolution, or otherwise, request the said Governor of the said Islands to transfer the same to the said Colony of Queensland, for the purpose of their being annexed to, and forming part of the said Colony, then the said Governor should, and he was thereby authorised and empowered to transfer to the said Colony the said Islands, and from and after the date of such transfer the said Islands so transferred should be deemed and taken to be, and should be annexed to, and form part of the said Colony of Queensland.

And whereas Her said Majesty did, by the said Letters Patent, further declare Her pleasure to be, that the said Governor of the said Islands should declare by proclamation the said transfer, and from and after the date of such proclamation such presents should cease and be of none effect, so far as relates to the appointment of a Governor of the said Islands, and his powers thereunder, but not further or otherwise, and not so as to affect any instruments, acts, matters, or things made or done by him, while such Governor as aforesaid, in pursuance of the powers thereby conferred on him. And whereas the Legislative Council and Assembly of Queensland have respectively resolved that it is desirable that the Islands lying within sixty miles of the coast of the Colony of Queensland should be annexed to, and become part of the said Colony, and have respectively presented Addresses to me, the Governor aforesaid, praying that I will be pleased to exercise the powers in that behalf conferred upon me by the above recited Letters Patent of the 30th day of May, 1872. And whereas I, the Governor aforesaid, in pursuance of the powers so conferred upon me, have, by deed-poll bearing even date herewith, transferred to the said Colony the said Islands, for the purpose of their being annexed to, and forming part of the said Colony of Queensland: Now, therefore, I, GEORGE AUGUSTUS CONSTANTINE, Marquis of Normanby, the Governor aforesaid, do hereby declare that I have so transferred the said Islands, and that from and after the date of such transfer the said Islands are to be deemed and taken to be, and are annexed to, and do form part of the Colony of Queensland.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Brisbane, this twenty-second day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and in the thirty-sixth year of Her Majesty's reign.

By Command,

[L.S.] A. H. PALMER.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

DEED POLL:
TRANSFERRING TO THE COLONY OF QUEENSLAND THE ISLANDS WITHIN SIXTY MILES OF THE COAST.

To All to Whom these Presents shall come,

GREETING:—

WHEREAS Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen was pleased, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, dated the 30th day of May, 1872, to constitute and appoint the Governor and Commander-in-Chief for the time being of the Colony of Queensland, to be Governor of all the Islands lying and being within sixty miles of the coasts of the said Colony. And whereas Her said Majesty did, by the said Letters Patent, further declare Her pleasure to be that if at any time thereafter the Legislative Council and Assembly of the said Colony of Queensland should, by resolution or otherwise, request the said Governor of the said Islands to transfer the same to the said Colony of Queensland, for the purpose of their being annexed to and forming part of the said Colony, then the said Governor should, and he was thereby authorised and empowered to transfer to the said Colony the said Islands, and from and after the date of such transfer, the said Islands so transferred should be deemed and taken to be, and should be annexed to and form part of the said Colony of Queensland. And whereas the Legislative Council and Assembly of Queensland have respectively resolved, that it is desirable that the Islands lying within sixty miles of the coast of the Colony of Queensland should be annexed to, and become part of the said Colony, and have respectively presented Addresses to me, GEORGE AUGUSTUS CONSTANTINE, Marquis of Normanby, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland, and Governor of all the Islands lying and being within sixty miles of the coast of the said Colony, praying that I will be pleased to exercise the powers in that behalf, conferred upon me by the above recited Letters Patent of the 30th day of May, 1872. And whereas I have taken into my consideration the prayer of the said Petitioners, and have agreed thereto: Now, therefore, I, GEORGE AUGUSTUS CONSTANTINE, Marquis of Normanby, Governor of Queensland and of the Islands aforesaid, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by the said recited Letters Patent of the 30th day of May, 1872, and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, do, by these presents, transfer to the said Colony of Queensland, all the Islands lying and being within sixty miles of the coast of the said Colony, whereof I am and have been duly constituted and appointed to be the Governor, in order that the said Islands may be annexed to, and form part of the Colony of Queensland.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Brisbane, this twenty-second day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

[L.S.] NORMANBY.

Signed, sealed, and delivered by the Most Honorable the Marquis of Normanby, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies, and Governor of the Islands within sixty miles of the coast of the said Colony, &c., &c., in the presence of

JOHN BRAMSTON.

QUEENSLAND, } Proclamation by the Most
to wit. } Honorable GEORGE AUGUSTUS
CONSTANTINE, Marquis of Normanby,
Earl of Mulgrave, Viscount Normanby, and Baron Mulgrave of Mulgrave, all in the County of York, in the Peerage of the United Kingdom; and Baron Mulgrave of New Ross, in the County of Wexford,
(L.S.)
NORMANBY, of Her Majesty's Most Honorable
Governor. Privy Council, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies.

IN pursuance of the powers vested in me by "The Diseases in Cattle Act," and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, I, the Governor aforesaid, with the advice of the Executive Council, do hereby prohibit the introduction or importation by sea of any horned cattle from the Colony of Victoria into the Colony of Queensland, until this my Proclamation has been altered or revoked by a subsequent Proclamation: And I do further notify and proclaim that any cattle introduced or imported into the Colony of Queensland, contrary to this my Proclamation, may be seized and forfeited: And any person concerned in such introduction or importation, or attempting to introduce or import any cattle, in violation of this my Proclamation, will be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds, nor less than ten pounds, to be recovered as in the said recited Act is provided.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Brisbane, this twenty-first day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and in the thirty-sixth year of Her Majesty's reign.

By Command,

A. H. PALMER.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

QUEENSLAND, } Proclamation by The Most
to wit. } Honorable GEORGE AUGUSTUS
CONSTANTINE, Marquis of Normanby,
Earl of Mulgrave, Viscount Normanby, and Baron Mulgrave of Mulgrave, all in the County of York, in the Peerage of the United Kingdom; and Baron Mulgrave of New Ross, in the County of Wexford,
(L.S.)
NORMANBY, of Her Majesty's Most Honorable
Governor. Privy Council, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies.

IN pursuance of the powers vested in me by "The Diseases in Cattle Act," and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, I, the Governor aforesaid, with the advice of the Executive Council, do hereby prohibit the introduction or importation by sea of any horned cattle from the Colony of New South Wales into the Colony of Queensland, until this my Proclamation has been altered or revoked by a subsequent Proclamation: And I do further notify and proclaim that any cattle introduced or imported into the Colony of Queensland, contrary to this my Proclamation, may be seized and forfeited: And any person concerned in such introduction or importation, or attempting to introduce or import any cattle, in violation of this my Proclamation, will be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds, nor less than ten pounds, to be recovered as in the said recited Act is provided.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Brisbane, this twenty-fourth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and in the thirty-sixth year of Her Majesty's reign.
